The HINDSONIAN

1929

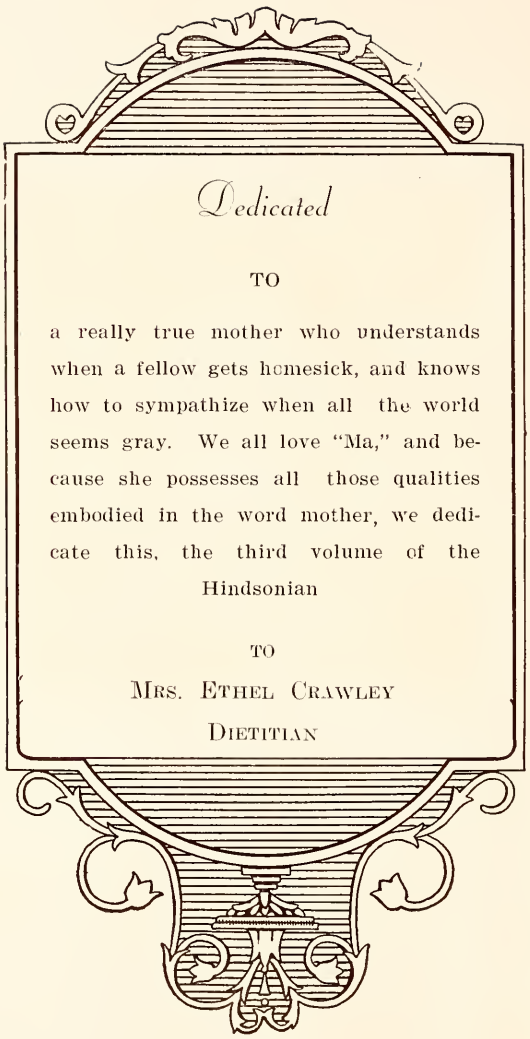

Volume Three

Published by the Students of

Hinds Junior College

Raymond, Mississippi

Dedicated

TO

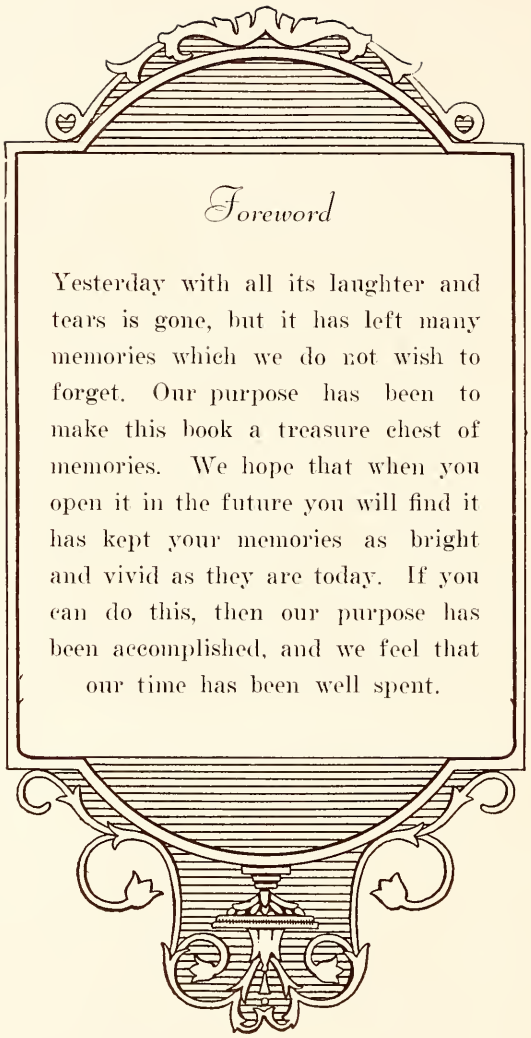

a really true mother who understands when a fellow gets homesick, and knows how to sympathize when all the world seems gray. We all love "Ma," and because she possesses all those qualities embodied in the word mother, we dedicate this, the third volume of the Hindsonian

TO

MRS. ETHEL CRAWLEY

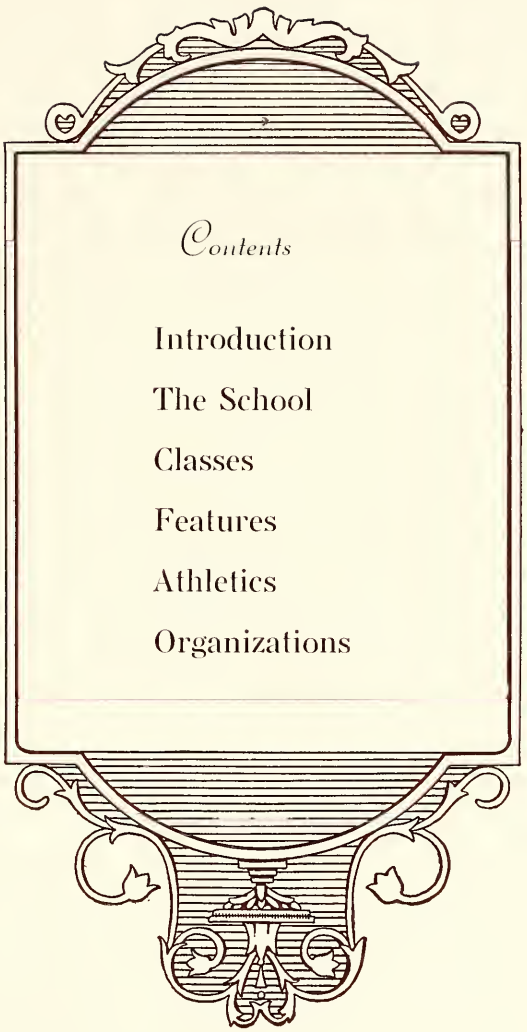

DIETITIAN

Foreword

Yesterday with all its laughter and tears is gone, but it has left many memories which we do not wish to forget. Our purpose has been to make this book a treasure chest of memories. We hope that when you open it in the future you will find it has kept your memories as bright and vivid as they are today. If you can do this, then our purpose has been accomplished, and we feel that our time has been well spent.

ACTIVITIES

Athletics

H. G. LAIRD

Coach

As Athletic Director, Coach has had his hands quite full this year, but you will agree with us that he made quite a neat job of all his work. A glance at the results of his teams' victories during '28 and '29 will convince anybody that he knows his pigskin—and his men. He is a good coach and an athlete of high standing. He received his training from Coach Bohler, director of athletics at Mississippi College for some years. While Coach Laird attended this college, he was a letter man in Baseball, Basket Ball and Football. He was also a member of the S. I. A. A. Championship basket ball team in 1926. His men will remember him as a coach who always stood for clean athletics.

CARROLL WRIGHT

Captain

Carroll came to Raymond in 1926, and promptly won a place on the team as a center. Coming back in 1927, he repeated the act, and was elected captain of the 1928 squad. The Eagles can boast of few, if any, harder fighting men than Carroll. He was always in the middle of the fray, and kept his opponents wondering what he was going to do next. In Carroll we have pictured a clean sportsman and a true athlete.

BUSTER SMITH

Captain Elect

E. R. Smith, better known as Buster, former Central Hi grid star and All State end, was elected Captain of the Eagles for the 1929 season. Buster was one of the most dependable players on the Eagle eleven, and his stellar work won him a place on the mythical All-Star Junior College aggregation. This "Carrot top" lad was in most games, and opposing teams learned early in the game that plays around his end were hard to make.

Football

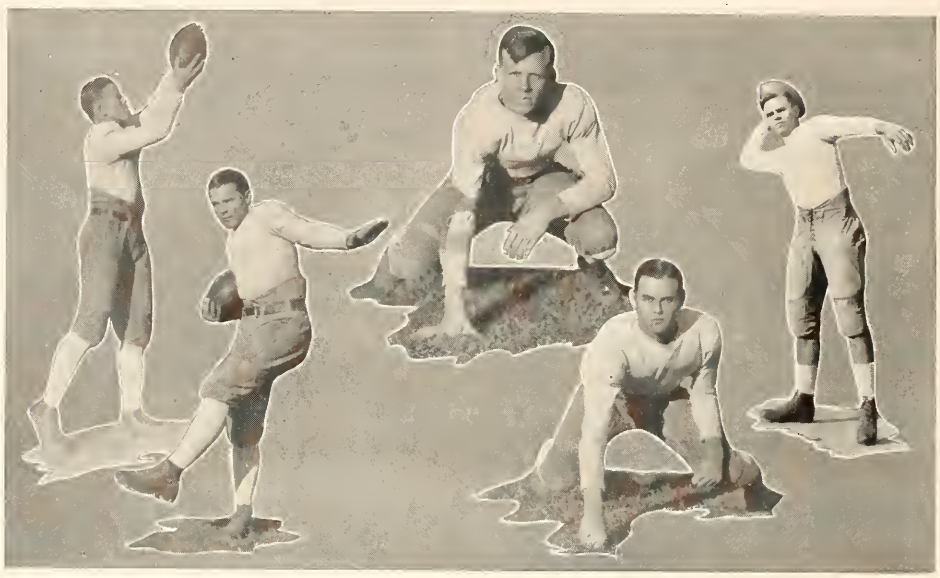

Football material at the beginning of the season was plentiful. Both letter men and inexperienced men reported to Coach Laird for a tryout for the team. Our line-up in the season's first game, which was played with Simpson Junior College, was as follows: Captain Wright at center, L. Wright and Brady at tackles, Murchison and Williams at guard, Thompson and Smith at ends, Bryant at full, Mobley and Richardson at the halves, and Cox at quarter. This was by no means the season's line-up, for there were men who did not play who were just as good as the ones on the first line-up.

LOIS McCLELLAN
Sponsor

The Eagles won four out of nine games. Two of those games were worth all the victories over the other teams added together. For years Wesson and Perkinston have been the outstanding rivals of our team. This year, when Wesson invaded the field, the rumor was that another defeat was in store for H. J. C. But the Eagles spread their wings and literally flew away with a 26—6 victory. They repeated the same performance in the game with Perkinston with a 6—0 victory.

So H. J. C. considers her football season a grand success, and she is very proud of her Eagles.

CHESTER COX—End

Chester came to H. J. C from Flora. He was fleet of foot which made it easy for him to get down under punts. His opponents found it mighty hard to get him out of the game.

BOB MOBLEY—Halfback

For the past two years Bob has rendered valuable service to the team. Besides his being a football man, he is also a track man. This training proved a valuable asset in his ability and speed at ground gaining. Bob is to graduate this year, and the team will sadly miss him next season.

JAMES MURCHISON—Guard

This was "Little Murch's" first year with the Eagles. Although he weighed only one hundred and forty-one pounds, his grit and determination won him a place on the first team. His name was submitted by the Wesson coach for left guard on the All State Junior College Team.

MELVIN RICHARDSON—Guard

"Big Rich" played at end last year, but this year he was moved to the guard position where most of his power could be used. Some of his opponents will agree that he used that power in tackling and opening up holes in the line.

CRESSLYN RICHARDSON—Halfback

Broken field running, passing, and serving as a quarter seemed to be second nature with "Rich." Although out most of the season with a bad shoulder, he got in shape to render service in the Bulldog-Eagle game.

CRAWLEY STUBBLEFIELD—Guard

A good hard fighting guard describes Stubblefield. Wearing the Red and White for the first time, this big guard was a strong man for the Eagles.

GARNETT THOMPSON—End

Garnett rounds out his fourth year at right end on the Eagle Varsity. He served as captain of the '27 and '28 squads. Although the lightest player on the team, he never failed to give a good account of himself. He can tackle with speed and is especially adept at crashing lines on the defense. Garnett also finishes this year, and the Eagles are losing a valuable player.

OREN VARNADO—Halfback

Oren came to the Eagles from Magnolia. His grit and determination were potent factors in every game. When it came to blocking and running interference, he was hard to excell.

HINTON WILLIAMS—Guard

Despite a more or less serious injury throughout the season, "Red" was an outstanding guard. Whenever called upon for service, "Red" never failed to give a good account of himself.

LANCE WRIGHT—Tackle

Althongh Lance has been out of school a season or two, we know that he has not lost any of his ability as a football player. His knack of breaking up plays was a great help in every game.

CECIL ALLEN—Tackle

This makes "Al's" fourth year with the Eagles. His ability to get through small holes in the line and buck plays was an asset to the team. "Al" could always be counted upon to do his best.

LAMAR BERRYHILL—Tackle

When Coach Laird issued the call for football men, he found "Big" Berryhill back on the job. Berryhill was one of the best linemen that the Eagles possessed. It was due to his great strength that many of our opponents' plays went wrong.

THELTON BRYANT—Fullback

This year finished "Barrel's" second season with the Eagles. When it came to blocking and backing up the line, "Barrel" was right there. Our opponents always said, "Get that fullback."

HAROLD CARR—Halfback

One hundrel and seventy pounds of brawn and unusual speed, and plenty of grit was Carr. One of the sensations of the gridiron this year. His outstanding contributions were in the Perkinston and Wesson games.

MILTON COX—Quarter

Speed, "guts," and ability, that's Milton on the gridiron. As a halfback, his speed made him hard to down: And, as a quarter, his ability to run the team and judge plays made him an outstanding man.

Basket Ball

Coach Laird's basketeers got off with a nice start this year by winning their first three games. With nearly all of last years men back, Coach Laird proved his ability as a basket ball coach by producing one of the best teams in the history of the Eagles. The team went to the conference with great hopes of winning the championship, but unluckily they drew one of the strongest teams in the conference. They lost by a small score of 32—26. We are proud of them because they had to play the team that won the championship first.

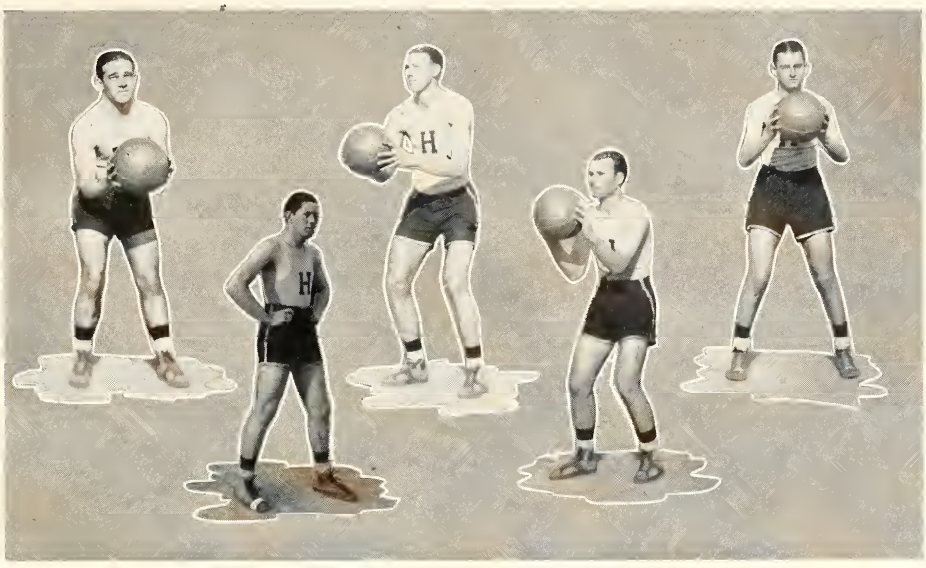

The men to make the squad are: L. Berryhill, C. Wright, Capt. Brady, M. Richardson, L. Wright, S. Bardin, S. Davis, H. Berryhill, J. W. Smith, R. Wright, C. Sojourner, R. Robinson, O. Kitchens, J. Webb, and T. Liles.

Baseball Outlook

As the Hindsonian goes to press, the Eagle's diamond men are practicing daily for a lengthy schedule that will be well on its way by the time the annual is finished. Coach Laird says he has some good prospects and that the present indications are that this spring's Eagles will be better than those of last year. The Eagles made a credible showing last season by winning a majority of the games on their schedule.

Track

One of the strongest track teams in the history of Hinds Junior College athletics was produced during the season of 1928; with all of last year's men back, and a great aggregation of new material, Coach Laird expects to turn out a team equally as good. The bright spot in the season of success was the showing in the Junior College Field Meet held at Raymond in the spring of 1928. The Eagles carried away first honors by winning a total of 63 points to their nearest opponent's 30.

The men back from last year are: Mobley, Thompson, Richardson, H. Berryhill, L. Berryhill, Carr, Kitchens, and Cox. The new men are Broadfoot, Farrior, Comfort, J. A. Cox, Bardin, M. Richardson, F. Ginn, McLemore, Applewhite, and Wilson.

Volley Ball

For three consecutive years, the Hinds Junior College volley ball team has easily won the state championship. In 1928, the H. J. C. boys defeated the two strongest teams in the conference to win the title, scoring 60 points to 4 points for the opposition. This year they defeated their opponents by a score of 60 to 9 for the opposition.

The men on the team are: Stubblefield, Broadfoot, Berryhill, Carr, McLemore, and Richardson.

MISS MOTLOW

COACH

This year was Miss Motlow's first year to coach girls' basket ball, but she turned out a very good team. With only two letter men to work with, she showed her skill by developing a team of experienced basketeers who made a good showing during the season. Miss Motlow had "that something" which makes a team fight, and she treated her players with a consideration that made them willing to give their best in every game.

EVELYN HAMBERLIN

CAPTAIN (Forward)

"If Eve is on, we'll win." How many times has that been said before a game? If consistent playing was needed, alright—and if the game demanded flash, she was right there. Not only was her shooting above par, but her generalship of the floor was excellent.

VAN TAYLOR

ASSISTANT COACH

His real name is Van, but to us he is just plain "Fat," a fellow who loved his work and put his best into it. What would we have done without his "Little Sermons" before every game, and the "pep" that he put into a team? What more can we say of him than that he always put the team's welfare first and looked out for himself afterward?

BOBBIE MORRIS

RUN CENTER

Bobbie: the very spirit of Eagle grit and determination. Nothing daunted her, and she was capable of playing a great game.

ELIZABETH COX

RUN CENTER

She was quiet, but how she could play ball!

AGNES PACE

FORWARD

Every team has a player who can always be depended upon, and Agnes was such a player; steady and unbeatable, she proved a formidable opponent.

ERMA LEE RICHARDSON

GUARD

A veritable machine of speed and strength was she. A forward had hard work to outplay her.

VERA McKAY

GUARD

A fast little guard whose floor work was excellent. Her passes to center were hard to break up.

IDELLE CLEMENT

JUMP CENTER

She was calm until the game grew close, then her fighting spirit flamed, and she showed her real ability.

LUCILLE BERRYHILL

JUMP CENTER

A crack player at center or guard. Her work in every phase of the game was excellent.

BETTY RAE PATRICK

FORWARD

Short, quick passing was her best asset, and she had a true eye for the basket.

REBECCA HART

FORWARD

Her small size made hard work for a guard, and her floor work was above par.

HELEN DUKE

GUARD

Helen played a fast game. She could cover a court with amazing speed, and could pass a ball with unfailing aim.

Girls' Basket Ball

The call for basketeers, season of '29, brought a large squad out, but only two letter players, both forwards. Coach Motlow had to find and develop new guards and centers. A few games were necessary to familiarize the team with the "ropes" in basket ball, and to teach them not to "blow up" in the pinches. Naturally, we did not make such a brilliant start; after the opening games, the squad rounded into one of the "Fightinest" little teams in the conference. They were never defeated till the last whistle blew, and they knew how to lose like real athletes. Their season was not as brilliant as last year's team, but they made credible showing in the tournament, and we feel sure that no other team except the champions could have had a better season.

Girls' Track

The H. J. C. girls have proved themselves, in the last three years capable of record breaking paces, and they are not apt to lose their reputation this year.

Last year's team was made up of Catheryn Ratliff, Maude Wynn, Erma Lee Richardson, and Evelyn Hamberlin. Only two of these high steppers, Richardson and Hamberlin, returned this year, but there are many new ones who are making excellent track material.

With such good prospects as we have now, H. J. C. is expecting her girls to carry off many honors at the field meet this year, and we feel sure that we count on them to make a brilliant showing in that event.

Girls' Volley Ball

The H. J. C. volley ball girls know how to "hold their own" when it comes to playing ball. At the tournament this year, they were again victorious, thus carrying off state championship for three consecutive years. Poplarville went down before them with a score of 30—4, and Wesson with a score of 30—2. The team is composed of the following girls: Hazel Carter, captain, Mary Bridges, Isobel and Cecile O'Brien, Dorothy Allen, and Elsie Mae Hutchins.

Staff Appreciation

To the patrons, the faculty, and the student body of Hinds Junior College, we, the annual staff for the 1929 Hindsonian, wish to express our sincere appreciation for the interest you have shown in the making and publication of this book. You have given us the material, the co-operation, and the support that is necessary to publish an annual, and we want you to feel that this is your own book. Without your help, the Staff could have done nothing. Our part has been to make tangible your thoughts and your ideas, and we hope that we have done our part satisfactorily.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr George H. Mackie who has under his management also the Mississippi College Band at Clinton, usually meets every Monday and Thursday evenings for practice. At which times, after most of the members have assembled and the "fiddles have been tuned up," they settle down for two hours of entertainment to any one who might chance to be in hearing distance. Usually, after the first members have arrived, Skipper strolls in and leisurely collects his cornet from one corner and his music from another. When "Bag o' Bones" is announced, Jack makes a dive for his bottle of oil and applies it most generously to his trombone because he knows that only the "slipperest sliding" will get him through that number. Fat's close-fitting horn requires a good deal of hot air in order to be played, and Fat can certainly furnish that. But after all their faults, they are a merry band, and at the close of each practice it may well be said that a good as well as constructive time is enjoyed by all.

The most notable attainment of this year's Glee Club was the production of the operetta "Jerry of Jericho Road." It is said that this was the best program of its kind given in some years at H. J. C. The Glee Club has given programs in chapel and plans to sing during commencement. Due to the excellent direction of Miss Plumlee, the Glee Club can say that it has had a most successful year.

Oscar Glaze
Chief Cook

On this page we have the photographic image of probably the best known character on the H. J. C. campus. Oscar is always the same. Here he looks down upon us with the self-same gaze that he fixes upon the rising biscuit every morning and upon the hash that he frequently stirs. He is gifted with many talents. The way he balances stoves and juggles rolls would save anyone the price of a ticket to an acrobatic performance, while anyone in need or religious attention would find in Oscar a very accomplished preacher to say nothing of his gift at singing.

Oscar is a very close observer and will never forget a single one of us. He may rest assured that, wherever we are, when we seat ourselves at a table and see a menu starring G R I T S, we shall think of him.

O, thou teachers whose business it is to impart History and English to these brainless students till they runneth over—what art thou compared to this great man whose task it is to fill their bottomless stomachs!
